WITH THE AID OF THE . .

Any one can play upon the Piano, whether or not he knows one note from another.

ONLY AT BOLLMAN BROS. CO., 1100 OLIVE STREET.

CAN BE PURCHASED ON MODERATE MONTHLY PAYMENTS.

Visitors Invited.

D. Sabini, J. Newell, H. Sporlider, Agnes Schmidt, W. Oneill, her sister, Mrs. Newell, of the South Side.

Through sleepers, parlor cars and coaches St. Louis to Cincinnati every day via Big Four Route.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Jacobson gave a reception Thursday evening in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Jacobson. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charley Wall, Mr. and Mrs. Pink Heyman, Mrs. Daysy Wohl, Mrs. Wisse, Miss Bella Woll. Miss Ruby Heyman, Hana Wohl. Rachel Wohl, Ralsy Ladcer, Mabel Heyman; Messrs. Harry Heyman, Henry Parhter, Michael Jacobson, Sam Saifer, Sidney Jacobson, Abe Jacobson, David Wohl, Alex. Light.

Among those present were:

bidwig. Becker. irstenwirth Morgan, Kelly, Hesfurter, Erah, Hanauer, Pietch, Mabus, Miller, laus, Doer, Wiegand, Wolfert, Firstenwirth.

Mrs. H. A. Schmidt, No. 3417 Pine street, entertained friends Wednesday evening at progressive eachre in honor of her hushand's birthday. The house was decorated with potted plants and cut Llowers, received by Mr. Schmidt as mementos of the octasion. Among those invited were;

Messieurs and Mesdames—
August Kollas, W. Barker,
Will Diederich, F. W. Bittman,
Thomas Stringer, Quade,
H. Sporilder, Meishelmer,

Cillie Schmidt, H. Miller,

Quade. Meisheimer. Warren Schmidt.

Mrs. J. Walters, No. 2901 Kossuth avenue decorations were purple and white. Lunch

The guests were;

Mesdames—
Cornelius Mahoney,
Will Dye,
A. L. Starke,
George Schemon

H. M. Schneider, Charles Wissmath, John Sharkey, John Wolf. George Solomon, Morris Tiernan,

Misses— Gertrude Sempf,

Mr. and Mrs. John Geiser, No. 5188 West Morgan street, emeriatined last Wednesday evenling in honor of their daughter, Miss Machel Geisler, the day being her birthday. The reception hall and parlor were decor-rated in palms and farms, while the dining-room was in sweet pease. Those present were: Missicurs and Mesdames— J. Geisler.

d. Ge.sler. orfemann. Milises-

Emma Wagner, Ima Geisler, Lever Bircher, Anna Buckstroch, Matel McCane, lessleurg-Elchard Viehe, G. Gibson, L. Rietty, F. Booth. J. Fox. Jr., Philip Finot, R. Duvis,

dr. and Mrs. Phil. Hetzel, No. 2719 South venth street, were given a masquerade orly last Saturday night by friends. The froom was a beautiful sight, the gay tumes of the guests and the Japanese terns adding greatly to the brilliancy of spectacle. Among those present were; assleurs and Mestiames— A. Fitze. Edward Hunt,

John Steffen, R. Sigg. A. Becker, L. Rumpf, Charles Hunt, Gardner,

The Thursday Club was entertained by Mrs. A. C. Melihac, No. 1719 South Broadway, Eachre was indulged in and a pleasant afternoon was spent. Prizes were won by Miss May C. Winzer, Miss Mamie C'Hara, Mrs. George Winzer, Jr., and Mrs. George Schildroth. After the game the guests repaired to the dining-room, where a luncheon was served.

Those present were:

Mesiames.

A. C. Melihac.

A. C. Melihac,
John Gerdes,
John Ahern,
George Winzer, Jr.,
George Heliz,
George Heliz, George Schidroth, Otto Ettmueller, Mamle O'Hara,

May C. Winzer. Messleurs-A. C. Mellhac,

Mrs. E. Forst, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Edw. Lambrechts, entertained Wednesday, in honor of her birthday. Mrs. Geo. Angermueller and Mrs. Elnest Eberlin succeeded in capturing the prizes in the "peanut contest."

Among those present were.

A. Heister, F. Merkel.

Geo. Stumm, W. Hoeltge, G. Carrick, Geo. Angermueller, Edw. Lambrechts, Rush Carpenter, Edw. Kaellch, Edw. Gerlach, Frances Forst Agethina Forst, Etta Jones, Kramfert.

Miss Emily Schmoll entertained friends in honor of her birthday at her home Saturday evening. The house was prettily decorated in carnations and fern leaves. Dancing was the main feature of the evening. A donkey contest also offered much amusement to the guests, for which handsome prizes were awarded. Miss Bessle J. Stumm, Miss Anna Jacobs, Mr. Albert Werder and Mr. Harry Showalter were the winners. Those present were:

Irene E. Kring, Emily S. Stumm, Dora Schowalter, Bessie J. Etumm, Messieurs—
P. Schmoll,
C. Stumm.
Paul Kelliter,
P. T. Johnson,
Will Merts,
Will Sevener

Albert Werder George C. Schmoll, Emil P. Stumm, Frank Hiensch, Albert Sexoner,

Alma Ochsner,
Hattle Mathews,
Velma Furlong,
Mabel O'Brien,
Sarah Collins,
May Bogy,
Rhoda Zoesch,
Mabel Ibers,
Edith Henninger,
Nettie Jordan Nettie Jordan, Lillian Butler,

I. J. Wilson, F. W. Rapp.

MISS LILLIAN MANNEWAL

Nellie Kuhlmann, Lottie Kuhlmann, Nettie Stein, Annie Ebrech, Annie Hoff, Messieurs-Albert Ziegenhein, Harry Richard, Gus Stein, Heron Wilson, Harry Johnson, Charles Nax, Arthur Haff, William Stem, W. D. Traber, Erwin Koch, Frank Meyer, William Schroeder, Invitations have been issued for the third informal of "the White Squadron," a South side social organization. The affair will be given at Thirteenth and Chouteau avenue, on Friday, April 4. A short musical and dramatic programme will be rendered, "The Violin Maker of Cremona," by Jerome will be presented by Messrs. Tom J. Hester, Ed J. Andrae and Martin R. Sweeney and Miss Addie L. Kormann, and "The Littlest Girl" (from Richard Harding Davis's story, "Her First Appearance") will be played by Joseph H. Tumbach and Edward Andrae. Miss Lillian M. Sutter will sing, and orchestral music will be rendered under Mr. W. A. Kaltenthaler. The affair is under the direction of Mr. Joseph H. Tumbach. Dancing is announced for 19 o'clock. The affair promises to be decidedly interesting and entertaining. SOCIAL CLUBS.

The Go Swell Out Bowling Club gave one of its parties last week on the St. Louis Bowling Association alleys. Those present were as follows:

Messieurs—

Josie Twele, K. Muesenfechter, M. Muesenfechter,

The Pleasant Hour Kaffee Klatch was en-

Callahan, M. J. Ward, Walsh, McDonough, Powers. Jutz. T. J. Ward. Bergan, McCarthy,

The Margaretta Euchre Club was entertained Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Charles F. Busche, No. 2321 Benton street. The house was decorated with paims and other plants. The first prize was won by Mrs. Schlesinger, the second by Mrs. Wetekamp, the third by Mrs. Nowakowsky and the consolation prize by Mrs. Kammann. About 5 o'clock luncheon was served. After luncheon everal selections were played on the plano by the Misses Henrietta Busche and Bertha Hoernlein. Later other forms of amusement were introduced by the various members of the club.

Among those present were:

Among those present were: Among those percent
Mesdames—
Mary Nowakowsky,
A. Nagel,
John May,
A. Schlesinger,
Emil Peteler,
A. Hornberg,
A. Hornberg,
A. Hornberg,
A. B. Kammann,
Mary Brown,
George Zibell,
George Hoernlein,
Augusta Wetckamp. A. Hornberg, J. W. Tuckett,

Misses Henrietta Busche, Bessie Busche, The Up-to-Date Terpin Club held its reg-ular meeting at the St. Louis Bowling As-sociation alleys Friday afternoon. Some good scores were made, Mrs. Al. Bush lead-ing. Among the bowlers were: Mesdames—

Mesdames—
J. P. Riechers,
I. Hoffman,
G. H. Strathman,
F. W. Krenning, Jr.
C. F. Stelly A. Bush, R. Engelskind, F. Steitz. Merten. Miss Anna Fischer.

Invitations are issued for the Easter informal of the Tally-Ho Club, to take place Wednesday evening, April 9, at No. 384 Olive street. The committee in charge are Messrs, M. J. Craven, Tom Rielley, J. J. Connors, Tom McLaughlin and Joe Cotter.

The Unity Dramatic Club will give its semimonthly progressive euchre at 2.39 p. m. on Wednesday. The Sin Claire Informal held forth pleas-antly last Wednesday evening, with the most enjoyable of this season's dances. The Sin Claire's final dance will be held Monday evening, March 31. Those present were:

Those present were:
Messicurs—
Phil. C. Bolms,
Arthur Gottschalk,
Harry Hart.
Howard Swingley,
Durward Jordan,
Thomas Macklind,
A. H. Freudenstein,
James J. Daniels,
J. E. Allen,
Stacey Bodine,
S. Quissenberry,
Howard Aber,
V. P. Lame,
N. T. Eledsoe,
Fred Gerber,
S. R. Holland,
E. P. Walsh,
Misses—

Edna Beatrice Dale, Mazie Woods, Mazie Woods, Bert Allen, Eva Markman, Grace Herndon, Winfred Jones, Josephine Godron, Sophia Torrence, Jessie Murrie, Pearl ibers Mrs. J. Goodfellow and Mrs. Charles E. Swingley gave a birthday dinner to the Ladles' Aid Society of the Cook Avenue Methodist Church Friday, March 14, assisted by Mrs. R. D. Smart and Mrs. Vaughn. The tables were handsomely decorated with flowers.

After dinner they adjourned to the parlors of the church, where Doctor Smart made a few remarks.

Hattle McCormacs Hazel Brown, Ethel Short. Fanny Morehead, Jessamine Lemon, Maud O'Brien, Lillian Butler, Anna Reed,
Myrtle Drayer,
Kathryn Lemon,
Birdle O'Brien,
Bessabelle Huey,
Messleurs and MesdamesL. J. Wilson,

Fanny Morehe
Jessamine Ler
Maud O'Brien
Fanny Long,
Elith Drew,
C. W. Horn.

Pearl Ibers, Hattle McCormack,

Miss Edna Hill. No. 6029 Maple avenue, entertained the Gibson Euchre Club Tuesday. Prizes were won by the Misses Maud Shepard, Julia Deickman and Bessle Jones, Those present were:

Misses—
Estelle Kupferle, Mildred Rohrer, Julia Deickman, Lena Robinson, Fannie Bright, May Robinson, Idabelle Bright, Adele M. Wait, Gertrude Craft, Lucy Evans, Mesdames—

C. B. Gibson,

Mr. and Mrs. Gus A. Stein entertained young people in honor of their daughter's the first of its series of entertainments on eighteenth birtiay. Games were played, Saturday evening, March 28, for members and their friends. Arrangements for the event are in charge of Louis Mandle and M. Cohnheim. One of the best orchestras has been engaged to furnish music. The hall will be decorated in the national colors.

Fine Diamonds-Mermod & Jaccard's. The S. B. A. Social Ciub, composed of graduates of the January, 1992 High School class, will give a dance at the Odeon on Wednesday evening, April 2.

Miss Adele Grimm No. 4133 Shenandoah avenue, entertained the Orgonia Club in honor of her birthday, Dancing, singing and playing were enjoyed until 11 o'clock, when supper was served. The table was beautifully decorated with roses and smilax.

Some of those present were:

Misses—

Dee Kuntz, Amelia Grimm,
Emma Menges, Eliza Tenegliff,

May Soulton.

Amelia Grimm. Eliza Tenegliff. Adele Grimm. Dee Kuntz,
Emma Menges,
May Squire,
Gertrude Morris,
Messieurs—
Fred Grimn,
Fred Sessinghaus,
Bert Thompson, Raife Richmond.

Miss Rose Hegel of Marcus avenue entertained the G. H. Euchre Club last Thursday afternoon. Cards were played until o'clock, after which a luncheon was served Prizes were won by Miss Josie Loire, Laur Le Guay, Rose Hegel. The members are:

Isabelle Ahern, Josie Loire, Laura Ahern, Emily Loire, Anna Liteburns.

The Entre Nous Club was entertained at the home of Miss Lillian Frederich's, No. 3120 Easton avenue, Tuesday afternoon. A dainty luncheon was served. Music and singing were also features of the afternoon. Among those present were:

Misses—

Blanche Behen, Julia Blankenmeister Allice Seaman. Lillian Frederich. Emily Spencer, Jennie Warnhoff. Leontine Kalstnbacl Della Weynamlet.

Mrs. W. Knaus entertained the Thursday Night Ladies of the Western Rowing Club at her home on Wednesday. Miss Emma

Grand Opening and Special Display.

Our Own Importation of Correct and Up-to-Date Paris and London Models,

Monday and Tuesday, March 17th and 18th. Your presence is respectfully requested.

During Opening Days the Following Exceptional Souvenir Bargains in Suits, Skirts, Waists, Jackets and Millinery will be placed on sale:

Suits, Waists, Skirts, Etc. During opening days we will sell a lot of Fine All-Wool Broadcloth and Venetian Tailor-Made Suits, in Eton, Blouse and Vest-Front effects-some made plain, some trimmedsilk-lined jackets-new style skirts-worth $16.50 and $17.50-

Opening Price.... During opening days we will sell a Swell Taffeta Silk Dress Skirt, made with graduated flounce, entirely tucked-tailor-finish throughout-worth $15.00-

During opening days we will take our regular $5.00 Pedestrian Skirt, made of fine Melton Cloth, stitched on flaring flounce with 20 rows of tailor stitchingall lengths--all colors-Opening Price.....

During opening days we will sell the swellest line of Beautiful Taffeta Silk Shirt Waists, in new colorings and new effects-worth $5.00 and

During opening days we will sell a Beautiful Silk Raglan, made with serge sailor collar, trimmed with ecru lace-worth $16.50--Opening

$10.00 During opening days we will sell a regular $1.50 Shirt Waist-white

75c

Millinery and Fancy Goods.

During opening days we will sell choice of all our 35c to 50c per yard Imported Fancy Ribbons at, per yard..... .....

During opening days we will sell 1,000 Handsome Silk Braid Chiffon and Jet Hats, the newest shapes, Taffeta Ribbons at, per yard .....

During opening days we will sell choice of every 25c Flower in our house at,

During opening days we will sell $1.00 and $1.25 Children's School Hats at (each)

75c

During opening days we will sell all

25c

Kemmerer, sister of the hostess, pleased the company with several songs; Mrs. L. Weinheimer and Mrs. H. Menne surprised their friends with a new piano duet, and Mrs. Flistead, Mrs. Heege and Miss Adele Knaus also performed on the plano. The hostess was assisted by Miss Elsa Spengier and Miss E. Kaemmerer.

Among those present were:

Mesdames—
Robert Meisheimer, Charles Kreh,

obert Meisheimer,
Dinsbeer,
Weinheimer,
Hoehl,
Heitz, Schweig,
us Schneidt,

Charles Kreh, H. Menne, Robert Jacob, Charles Walthers, H. Brumleve, T. Heege, W. Flistead,

New and beautiful designs in Broadway and Locust. Also Prayer Books, Lily Vases, Candelabra and other Easter Gifts.

On Tucsday an entertainment was given by the Athens Dramatic Society, presenting "The Old Maid's Verdict" and "My Mother in-Law's Return." The two plays were man-aged by Mr. J. S. Seelig and well pre-sented.

The Bank Clerks' Club will give its first annual dance at Compton Heights Hall, Compton and Shenandoah avenues, to-morrow evening. Three hundred invitations have been issued. Mr. and Mrs. Merrem entertained the Oc-idental Euchre Club last week. The meet-ing proved very enjoyable, concluding with Miss Jane Gilmore of the South Side en-tertained the "Hungry Ten," a jolly crowd of ladies, Miss Lizzle Bope assisted, covers being laid for ten. Those present were:

Mesdames—
J. Gilmore,
Eberle,
P. Helb,

May Ward, Jane Gilmore, Mattie Ward, Mamie Gilmore, Lizzie Bope,

We will furnish 100 sheets and 50 envelopes of our Imperial Vellum Paper, stamped with two or three letter monogram in gold or colors, for only $1.75. Mermod & Jac-card's, Broadway and Locust. has been spending the week with her cou-sin, Mrs. Edward Cunningham.
Mr. and Mrs. James C. Thoroughman of Page avenue are visiting Mrs. Thorough-man's mother, Mrs. Fred Manget.
Miss Helen L. Janis has returned from a visit to Miss May Atkinson of Lafayette avenue. PARTIES.

Miss Florine Finley of No. 424 Kennerly avenue entertained Thursday afternoon from 3:30 to 6 o'clock in honor of her nineteenth birthday. A number of Miss Finley's young lady friends contributed to the entertainment, which was largely musical. Miss Finley being a planist of note Luncheon was served at 5 o'clock, following a short programme. Among those present were:

Lillian Randall, Eliza Bell, Blanche Ford, Alga Elchenberger. Stella Lapping. Clair Larat. Mayme Coyne, Sara Coyne, PERSONAL MENTION.

Wedding Invitations-Mermod & Jaccard's Miss Van Horne of Chicago is visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Richards of Cook ave-

Mrs. Doctor Lewright and Miss Ihne No. 2003 East Grand avenue, have departed for a two months' pleasure tour of Florida and Cuba. Last week was spent in Jacksonville and vicinity. From there they go to Miami, where they will spend some time before going to Havana and other points of interest in Cuba.

Miss Blanche Bransconier, who has been abroad all winter, has gone from Ireland to the Continent, where she will travel for several months. Rumors of Miss Branconier's engagement, which have reached St. Louis, are denied by members of her family as being entirely without foundation.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McCourtney have sold their home at No. 4607 Cook avenue, and are now living in Peorla, Ill.

Mrs. Sam Spiegel, No. 4575 Evans avenue, has returned home from a visit to her sister. Mrs. Adolph Artz of Jefferson City. Mo. While there she has been the guest of several large functions. Mermod & Jaccard's, Broadway and Lo who has been ill for some time.

Miss Helen Atwood attended the Primary Union of the Third Baptist Church of St. Louis.

Professor Grove entertained the Forttwo Club on Saturday evening. The usual refreshments were served. The prizes were wen by Mrs. Ernest Smith and Mrs. J. E. Hern.

Professor E. D. Lucky is visiting Mr. William Browning.

Miss Derinda Staley, after an absence of thice weeks, has returned to the Ursuline Academy at Alton, Ill.

The Senior Missionary Society met at the home of Miss Anna Hamilton on Friday afternoon.

Mrs. R. M. Dalton and her daughter, Miss Julia Dalton, have returned from a visit to Mrs. J. A., Schreiber of St. Charles, Mo. Mirs. William Browning is the guest of Mrs. E. D. Lucky of Union boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Tiffin of Kansas City, Mo., are spending some weeks with Mr Tiffin's sister, Mrs. J. E. Hern.

Mrs. William McCullough will leave for the South on the 1st of April, with her children. She will remain during the entire summer. Mrs. Samuel Pryor will occupy her house until her return.

The Wednesday Musical Club was entertained on Wednesday afternoon by Miss Margaret Patrick. Beethoven was taken as a study. After the reading of the opera. "Fidelio" Miss Patrick played the Sonata Opus 27, Miss Anna Hamilton a violin selection from the opera, Mrs. Joseph Christen played selections from Beethoven and Chopin, Miss Julia Dalton sang "My Queen," by Biumenthal; Mrs. Arthur Harrison a selection from the "Burgemaster" and Miss Katherine Tifms sang "I Think of Thee," by Franz Abt. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. George Miltenberger entertained the History Class on Thursday afternoon. Among the members who attended were served.

Mrs. George Miltenberger entertained the History Class on Thursday afternoon. Among the members who attended were served.

Mrs. George Miltenberger entertained the History Class on Thursday afternoon. Among the members who attended were served.

Mrs. Robert Jordan, have returned from a prolonged visit to their courin, Mrs. Scar Belbinger and Miss Geo Mr. and Mrs. John R. Bircher, No. Labadie avenue, are receiving congrat tions on the arrival of a son. Mrs. M. Poulnois, who has been staying with Mrs. H. Wand, No. 3008 Kossuth ave-nue, will depart Wednesday for Peorla to visit her daughter, Mrs. John Brockel. The Misses Cahalan returned home Fri-

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Reid of Buffalo are occupying apartments at Hotel Beers for an indefinite time. Miss Louis Niehoff of Eureka is visiting friends in St. Louis.

Mrs. A. Berry of Otterville, Mo., accompaned by her son Thomas is visiting her brother. Professor Thomas Winer, principal of the Rock Hill School in Windom.

Mrs. Louis Bell and her daughters, Misses Bessle and Hazel, who have been visiting Mrs. E. Marshall of Windom, have returned to their home in St. Joseph, Mo.

William Schnarr of Central and Miss Mar-Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Keith, formerly of Kansas City. Mo. are at home at No. 2838 Lindell boulevard.

PERGUSON, No.

'A Flood of Incomparable Bargains'

FOR MONDAY AND TUESDAY.

AMERICAN CUT GLASS.

MAIL ORDERS FILLED.

SILVER-PLATED WARE. Tuesday's Sale

BON-BON DISHES—An endless assortment of new designs and shapes quadruple plate, gold lined, regular price $2.50 to $2.00; while

$1.48

THE GIBSON, Coronation and the new Tailor-made Belts are our exclusive belt avenue.

Mr. Kendell of Kansas City is the guest of Mr. Frank Seymore.

Mr. end Mrs. John C. Atwood are visiting Mr. Atwood's father, Doctor Le Grand At-

Mrs. Douglas Robert of St. Louis is the guest of her sister, Mrs. George Miltenberger.

Mrs. George Jessup has returned from Chicago, where she went to visit her mother, Mrs. Jones, formerly of Ferguson, who has been ill for some time.

Miss Helen Atwood attended the Primary Union of the Third Baptist Church of St. Louis,

ST. LOUIS COUNTY SOCIETY.

LEATHER GOODS. At 50c, $1.00 and $1.50. LEATHER CHATELAINES, like cut, large size, leather lined, well made, all genuine leather, all colors, usually sell for 11; Monday and Tresslay's 49c sale. BEADED CHATELAINES handmade, steel beads, chamois lined, with inside pocket and purse; Monday and Tuesday's $2.98

EASTER JEWELRY. THE NEW HATPINS, an endless variety to select from. At 50c, 75e and $1.00

BROOCHES-14-K. gold-filled, set with tur-quoise, pearls and amethyst; sold elsewhere for $1.00 to $1.50; Menday and 50c specials and are moderate-priced attrac-414-416 N BROADWAY.

A Sale You Can't Afford to Miss. Visitors Always Welcome. A CLEAN-OUT SALE OF

Gallery will

a reduction.
Nothing reserved. We can only mention a few of them. HANDSOME PHOTOCHROMES, large

BEAUTIFUL COLORED landscapes and figures in the oblong gold ovals, usually 86.00; Monday and Tuesday's Sale WE TEST EYES FREE.

SPECTACLES $1.00 and upward. If you tha Deuser of Price were married in Clay-ton last Tuesday. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Deuser and a niece of County Treasurer Philip Deuser. Miss Anna A. Hackman of Creve Coeur, a sister of Mrs. E. C. Eggers of Clayton, was married last Sunday to Fred Borchers of Countal married last Sunday to Fred Borchers of Cettral.

Miss Myrtle Fisher of Fort Scott, Ark., has been visiting Miss Orlean Shackleford of Clayton the last week.

Miss Bertha Dietrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dietrich of Affton, was married last Sunday to Mr. Max Simon of Luxen bourg. The ceremony was performed in the Sappington Evangelical Church by the Reverend Doctor Cruse. Mr. Leon Gier of Chicago has just returned home after a visit to her brother, Mr. Bertrand H. Gler.
Mrs. Kessler of Salt Lake City is visiting her mother, Mrs. H. H. Sallsbury.
Mr. William Milne and family will move to New York the 1st of May. Will Milne, Jr., will remain here, but will probably live in St. Louis.

Mr. William Milne and Jamily Milne, Jr., will remain here, but will probably live in St. Louis.

Mrs. Simon returned last week from a three months' visit to Memphis, Tenn.

Mrs. Alfred K. Prince is visiting friends in Chicago.

Mr. Otto Widemann will address the Monday Club on March 24, on the "Feathered Inhabitants of St. Louis County." The meeting will be held in the Congregational auditorium in order to accommodate the audience that is expected. The children of the public school and of the ladies of the Monday Club are to be invited.

The paper at the Menday Club meeting this week was a review of "Elizabeth and Her German Garden." A wide difference of opinion as to the character of Elizabeth made an exceedingly interesting discussion, after the reading of the paper.

The Century Club has very dainty invitations out for a Dutch tea, from 3 to 5 o'clock Tuesday, at the residence of Miss Myra Skinner in Webster Park. The engraving on the cards, as well as the little Holland windmill, are in delft blue. The occasion is the anniversary day of the club.

Miss Mary E. Allen has cards out for a musical nut party, the afternoon of March 2. for her music pupils and their friends.

Mrs. Alexander Penny and Miss Bessie Penny have returned from Asheville, the latter much improved in health.

Miss Nellie Morton, formerly of this place, is now in Washington, D. C.

Two Websterians on the programme of the lenten concert, given Saturday by the Union Musical Club at the Church of the Messiah, were Mr. E. R. Kröeger and Miss Caroltyn Allen, both as organists.

The Men's Whist clubs will have a joint meeting at Mr. Ernest Curtis Saturday by the Union Musical Club at the Church of the Messiah, were Mr. E. R. Ercest Curtis Saturday by the Union Musical Club at the Church of the Messiah, were Mr. Ernest Curtis Saturday.

Mr. Charles R. Adams of Ceday Rapids, Le was visiting the N. D. Allens Tuesday.

The Men's Whist clubs will have a joint meeting at Mr. Ernest Curtis Saturday night.

Mr. Charles R. Adams of Cedar Rapids.
Mr. Miss Emily Beck has been quite ill with scarlet fever.

Mrs. Hans Glatte is expected home this week for a few days' vis't.
Miss May Steinhauer is taking a course of instruction at the Provident Association. preparatory to engaging in social-settlement work. She has also taken charge of the Webster Domestic-Service Bureau, which she believes to be a worthy undertaking, needing her assistance.

The Sewing Circle will meet with Mrs. Deans, Garrett Monday afternoon.
Mrs. J. R. Bettis expects to leave for Dallas some time this week. She will return in time to attend the Printers' Convention, with Mr. Bettis, at Little Rock, in

Mr. Louis Stern, who has been living in Philadelphia during the past year, has re-turned to St. Louis with his family and is at present located at No. 4312 Cook avenue.

KIRK WOOD.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hamilton have taken one of Mr. Dana's cottages on West Main street and expect to move the first of May.

Mr. Meverell Good entertained the secret society of which he is a member, on Saturday night of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Herbert Weed are to move to New York about April 15. Mr. Weed is editor of two insurance papers and his work calls him away from Kirk-wood so much of the time that they have decided to make their home in the East.

Mrs. Charles Cummings Collins and two little daughters departed on Friday for a months' visit in Little Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward King are to move fix a short time to a house of Mrs. Bran's on Harrison avenue.

Miss Fannie Lawton spent Saturday and Sunday with Miss Mary Good.

Mrs. Charles Ricker gave a whist party to eight of the Whist Club Indies of Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Howard Ewald entertained the eucher club to which she belonged on Friday night of last week.

Miss Amy Chandler expects to go to Burope this spring for quite a long trip.

Mrs. John Pitman gave a luncheon last Saturday for her daughter, Mrs. Ben Crospy. All the decorations were pink and white—the pink of the candies and cakes matching the flowers. Those at the luncheon were Miss Lonlo Brown, Miss Churchill Jones, Miss Leontine Tracy, Miss Katherine Tracy, Mrs. Harry Hyatt and Mrs. John Matthews.

Miss Olive Burnham of Omaha, who has been visiting Mrs. Cummings Collins, of Rose Hill.

The Piano Club will meet Monday afternoon in the choral room. Mr. Bert McKine with her uncle, Mr. John Collins, of Rose Hill.

The Piano Club will meet Monday afternoon in the choral room. Mr. Bert McKinenie of Webster Groves is to sing for the club that afternoon.

The Monday Night Club holds its meeting this week at the house of Mr. Joseph Franklin. Mr. James L. Blair is to read the paper. The subject is: "Is a Lawyer Justified in Defending One Accused of a Crime, Knowing Him to Be Guilty?"

Miss Lucille Mae Crellis is to spend several days the first of the week with Miss Henrietta E. Hough.

Mrs. William Daly Lawton is visiting her mother. Mrs. William Eoff. Mrs. Lawton will also visit several of her old friends while in Kirkwood.